Floods, Tornadoic Winds, Bitter Cold, Snow Hit Nation

Floods, snow, sleet, rain, tornadoic winds and bitter cold hit the nation Thursday. It was the worst onslaught of the winter.

Deaths attributed to weather conditions mounted hourly.

A United Press International count showed at least 63 fatalities, including 14 in Ohio, nine each in Illinois and Indiana, six each in New York and Michigan, four each in Iowa, Wisconsin and Kentucky, three in Missouri, two in New Mexico, and one each in Kansas and Oklahoma.

AT BUFFALO, N. Y., a grain boat was ripped from its moorings by gale force winds and flood currents and sent crashing into the main span of an important bridge. The bridge was a complete loss. Three workmen were on the bridge at the time and two were hurt while dashing to safety.

In Connecticut, an ice jam sent the Housatonic River spilling over its banks at New Milford, flooding several buildings.

FLOOD IN OHIO SAID WORST IN 20 YEARS

COLUMBUS, Ohio — UPI — The death toll of flash floods which hit Ohio Wednesday rose to 14 today. Police reporting a number of persons missing and up to 10,000 homeless.

A cold wave stopped the record rainfall which dumped up to five inches of rain on the state but the snow and icy pavements made cleaning up operations difficult.

EMERGENCIES WERE declared in a number of cities, including Columbus and Mount Vernon. Schools, stores, and factories closed in many areas. Steel-helmeted national guardsmen joined local officials and coast guardsmen in rescue operations. The Red Cross set up emergency housing facilities in schools, churches, lodge halls and private homes.

THE WORST tragedy was in Lake County in northern Ohio where five persons drowned when a boat overturned in the Chagrin River near Willoughby Hills. The victims were three members of one family and two of the three persons who sought to rescue them.

The rains came suddenly and

PALLBEARERS WILL include Adolph Zukor and Samuel Goldwyn who are among the small handful of Hollywood's founding fathers still living.

For the Record

Mayor Clarifies Status of Officials

Mayor Frank Bogert, in a move which he termed unnecessary, today clarified the status of City Manager R. W. Peterson and Public Works Director Frank Hamerschlag, who recently resigned.

"It is not necessary to clarify a situation which already is clear, but a report published in a newspaper (not The Desert Sun) is misleading and could cause confusion," Bogert said.

"EVERYTHING CONCERNING the resignation of City Manager Peterson is clear and a matter of record in the minutes of the action by the City Council. Peterson's employment will be terminated on Feb. 1, and he will be retained in a consultant capacity for 45 days additional — until March 15," said the mayor.

"This is what the minutes say, and this is the action the council took," he continued.

"THE SITUATION concerning Hamerschlag is also clear, even though the council has no jurisdiction

Flash flooding in the Buffalo, N. Y., area was described as one of the worst in the section's history. Combined flood and wind damage around Buffalo was expected to run close to 10 million dollars.

IN THE NEW York City area, two ferry boats brushed each other in fog on the Hudson River. No one was injured.

At Madison, Ind., late Wednesday, a group of school children waded to safety through the rushing waters of a flooded stream when their bus stalled on a bridge. Minutes after the children had reached safety, the bridge buckled.

Flood, wind and rain damage was equally by the snow and bitter cold which swept the interior in blizzard-like proportions.

What was described as a full scale blizzard raged in the northwestern part of Michigan's Lower Peninsula, Manistee, Mich., was among the hardest hit and only the main streets could be kept open. Roads into the area were impassable.

THE STATE HAS had worse floods along the Ohio River but not in years was there anything like Wednesday's downpour which flooded streams, rivers, sewer systems and basements throughout the entire state.

Flood damage ran into the millions. Flood damage was high in Columbus where more than 2,500 persons were evacuated from their homes. Travel across the city from east to west was almost impossible. The Scioto River overflowed, forcing evacuation of public housing units. The river also overflowing the city sewer system with the water bursting out of manholes to flood large areas five miles from the stream.

Columbus Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner declared an emergency. Schools and stores closed to reduce traffic. Soldiers from Fort Hayes in the city used their amphibious craft to aid in the rescue work.

3 Die in Head-On Freeway Crash

UPLAND UPI — Three persons died Wednesday night in a head-on collision on the San Bernardino Freeway. Two others were injured.

The dead were Richard Crist, 36, Fontana; and Eugene Steffen, 29, and his wife, Rafaela, 24, Elsinore.

tion over him. The director of public works reports only to the city manager, and he filed his resignation with Peterson to become effective on Feb. 12, and although Peterson asked him to extend this date 30 days, it is our understanding that he has refused to do so," added the mayor.

Bogert said that as far as the salary arrangement was concerned for the city manager, "my motion before the council a week ago was for the retention of Peterson at the same salary he was getting—$1,210 per month — for the additional 45 days he will be retained in an advisory capacity."

The mayor said that he had talked with all the members of the City Council last night to "find out if there was a misunderstanding on their part" about the retention of Peterson for the 45 days, and "each councilman said that it had been perfectly clear in the motion that was made by the mayor and that they had seconded it and duly passed it."

Araby Bridge Crash Starts Safety Probe

Accident Record To Be Checked In Investigation

Tuesday's triple Araby bridge tragedy today sparked an intensive probe into East Palm Canyon Drive traffic conditions. Police and city safety officials opened a study of accident rates at the narrow, curving bridge and its western highway approach.

POLICE CHIEF August Kettmann said the study will determine whether the state shall be asked to adjust current speed zones of the troubled area.

Members of the city's Traffic Advisory Commission, headed by John Wood, will join forces with police and city traffic engineer Jack Grabner and the Palm Springs Safety Council to plot the area's accident rate for the past year.

The surveyors will also draft resolutions for changes in traffic laws that might be recommended as a result of the investigation.

THE PROBE WAS triggered by a two-car, head-on collision that claimed the lives of three motorists and injured two others, one critically, early Tuesday morning. Chief Kettmann and city safety experts apparently regard the two-lane, curving bridge as a potential breeding ground for accidents.

They have already suggested that signs be posted warning freeway-minded drivers that this is "two-way traffic." Kettmann also feels that double center lines should be painted as a warning against passing on the bridge and its approaches.

The traffic survey will embrace the highway running from Ramon Road to the eastern city limits beyond the bridge.

'Alfalfa' Switzer, Ex-Child Actor, Slain Over Debt

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. UPI — Carl (Alfalfa) Switzer, 31, the freckled face child actor in the old "Our Gang" movies was shot and killed Wednesday night in a wild battle over a $50 debt. His former business partner was booked on suspicion of murder today.

Switzer, known to his friends as Alfalfa, the character he played in the old series currently being rerun across the nation on television as "The Little Rascals," was shot in the stomach by M. S. (Bud) Sultz, 38, police reported.

Trustees Seek Head Man for Desert College

Coachella Valley Junior College District trustees plan to swing into executive session tonight to discuss employment of an administrator for the new College of the Desert.

The Board of Trustees meets at 7:30 p. m. at their Palm Desert office, 74-273 Highway 111.

Other agenda items up for discussion at tonight's adjourned meeting include the annual trustee election in May.

6 Crewmen Die As AF Tanker Crashes, Burns

ALEXANDRIA, La. — UPI — All six crewmen were killed today when an Air Force KB50 refueling plane crashed in flames shortly after taking off from England Air Force Base near here.

Cause of the accident was not immediately determined.

Censorship Lifted by Castro For 'War Crimes' Trials

HAVANA UPI — Cuba and its colorful capital of Havana seethed with excitement today over the start of the "war crime" trials of more than 600 Batista soldiers in Havana's Cabana Prison fortress across the bay from Old Havana.

Any doubt the populace was solidly behind the "revolutionary justice" of Fidel Castro almost vanished yesterday afternoon when a crowd of nearly one million persons screamed their approval and cheered wildly at everything Castro said.

THE HAVANA TRIALS will be conducted in the full glare of global publicity and almost 400 newsmen from 22 countries were in Havana to see them start and to hear personally from Castro as he answers world-wide criticism at a news conference today.

The influx of newsmen representing newspapers, magazines, television, radio and newsreels was spotlighting the trials and executions in an unparalleled manner. The wraps were off — there is no longer censorship and newsmen are free to write anything they like.

HAVANA MEANWHILE was slowly recovering some of its traditional gaiety. An indication was Wednesday's mass meeting at the Presidential Palace when the enormous crowd waved banners,

Telephone Rate Increase Given PUC Approval

A telephone rate increase for California Water and Telephone Co. has been approved by the California Public Utilities Commission and will amount to $750,000 yearly. The increase will boost rates to the company's residential subscribers by five to ten cents per month, effective Feb. 16.

DOAK DAVIS, local company manager, said today that the increase will raise the cost of one party residential phone from $4.90 to $5 per month; a two-party residential telephone from $3.95 to $4. There is no increase in the four party rate.

In relation to business telephones, the increase will raise one party phones from $8.65 to $10.65; and two party business phones from $6.90 to $8.65 per month.

Residential customers will pay $27,000 yearly of the total increase.

AN INCREASE WAS also seen for extension telephones, raising the cost of residential extensions from $1 to $1.10 per month, and business extensions will increase from $1.25 per month to $1.60.

California Water and Telephone Co. requested an increase sufficient to provide a rate of return of seven per cent. The PUC estimates the increase will provide a return of 6.25 per cent.

Youth Summer Training Program Asked of Board

Junior Chamber of Commerce officials have offered Palm Springs educators a new youth educational training program designed to train high school boys in the performance of skilled trades.

Bob Marx, chairman of the Jay-Cee program, will offer the plan to the Board of Education when it meets at the high school music building at 7:30 p. m., today.

THE PROGRAM proposes creation of summer on-the-job training courses for some 100 high school students.

Marx explained that the program will prepare unskilled high school students for useful occupations after graduation. It is designed to reduce the current problems created by too much unskilled labor.

He pointed out that high school graduates seeking gainful employment are now untrained in professions, crafts or trades and, therefore, "are considered unskilled labor."

"THIS UNSKILLED labor is flooding our economy today," Jay-Cee executives claimed, "and our community, even though it is continuing to grow, is unable to integrate these young citizens."

Emphasizing the need here for skilled employees, Marx noted that "our crafts and trades" are in the position of having to hire unskilled laborers and training them.

Jay-Cee officials said that 40 firms have thus far consented to join the training program.

EACH FIRM WHICH signifies approval will employ one high school student for a total of six weeks during the summer vacation period.

While they learn their crafts and trades, ranging from cooking and construction to photography and

National Committee Is Meeting

Representative Simpson Answers Message from Ike

DES MOINES, Iowa UPI — President Eisenhower called on the Republican Party today to stop acting like a sleeping elephant between election campaigns. Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.) immediately snapped back with a demand that the White House do the same.

Simpson, chairman of the GOP Congressional Campaign Committee, was given a round of applause by Republican National Committee members who have long felt that the President was too indifferent toward political activity.

EISENHOWER ALSO told the National Committee that the GOP must immediately tell the nation what it stands for in terms of long-range goals. Simpson asked the White House to take the lead in that project, too.

The President's suggestions for a GOP comeback plan to recoup from the defeats of 1958 were contained in a message to the opening session of the committee's two-day meeting. Vice President Richard M. Nixon also telegraphed the meeting that the party must campaign on a year-round basis.

SIMPSON SEEMED to have been fired up by the presidential message.

Introduced a few minutes later, he said:

"I call upon the White House to give us some of that unremitting political, planned effort on behalf of the Republican Party. I call upon the White House to state this long-range purpose of the Republican party, to give us a statement of principles for which we can stand."

SIMPSON SAID his campaign committee was already at work writing a Declaration of Republican principles.

Except that the President's message was directed only to the GOP, it sounded the same as the plan he revealed to Congress in his State of the Union Message. He said then he intended to set up a committee modeled after President Hoover's Committee on Social Trends to lay out a set of national goals.

Pearl Bailey Stars at Flamingo

LAS VEGAS — Pearl Bailey's musical commentary on how to crash high society has won her rave reviews and capacity crowds for her current show at the famed Flamingo here.

Written and produced by Pearl and her husband, drummer Louis Bellson, the show is titled "How to Make the 400 the Hard Way." One reviewer in the Nevada city compared Pearl's spoof of society with Bob Hope's take-offs on Morocco's harems.

Augmenting Pearl's revue is the Glenn Miller Orchestra under the direction of Ray McKinley and Dick Contino.

HORTON'S ABILITY IS PROVEN AGAIN

By GEORGE LAINE
In baseball, it was Joe DiMaggio; in broadcasting, it has been H. V. Kaltenborn; in music, it is Renata Tebaldi—the old pros. There will be scant argument if that same accolade is handed to Edward Everett Horton, actor.

IN THE AMERICAN premiere of "Not in the Book," a British comedy with a whodunit atmosphere—after a bare week in work-outs—brings it onto the Palm Springs Playhouse stage as a virtually finished work. If it seems to lack some polish, it is polish of the most superficial nature.

Horton, a non-protesting victim of the longest term type casting in theatrical history, gets the role of an English civil servant who suddenly finds the skeletons in his family closet rattling louder than an Xavier Cugat mambo. He reacts like Edward Everett Horton reacts in any strained situation—he goes to pieces, methodically—and it is more fun than most theater audiences ever have.

It isn't an all-Horton show, although frankly it sometimes seems to be.

DOROTHY STONE, that fabled, born-in-a-trunk girl who acceded to Horton's plea in taking the role of his spouse in this play, does as best she can with some fairly skimpy material. Arthur Watkyn, who authored the play, almost wrote Dorothy out of the play. Best support came from John Newton, cast as a young student turned novelist, and by Thayer Roberts, a partially deaf English colonel. Both were outstanding and both were hilarious.

Not so funny was the South American created by Lawrence Berger although the fault might rest with the author again. "Dumb foreigners" aren't nearly so much in vogue as they were, say, two decades ago, but Watkyn clearly doesn't comprehend this.

JAMES STAPLETON, Bill Mims and Michael Ferrall round out the cast.

Watkyn has done quite well, generally, with this play. It is difficult to confirm, but I believe it is the first published effort by

Robert Flavin Commended by Police Chief

Police Officer Robert Flavin was today commended by Police Chief August Kettmann for his speedy arrest of a young Marine charged with strongarm robbery.

Acting on the complaint of strongarm victim Clare Bashore, Officer Flavin arrested 18-year-old Charles Edward Mofford, who was subsequently bound over to Superior Court.

Mofford reportedly admitted beating Bashore in a robbery attempt near Desert Hot Springs the night of Jan. 14. Flavin arrested the suspect in downtown Palm Springs shortly after Bashore told the officer his story.

"Such alertness and expeditious action is the trademark of good law enforcement," Chief Kettmann noted in his official commendation.

Mary McIntyre Requiem Mass Set for Friday

Rosary for Mrs. Mary Frances McIntyre, one of three persons who died in Tuesday's "worst Palm Springs accident," will be recited at 7:30 p.m., tonight in the chapel of Wiefels and Son Mortuary.

A requiem mass will be conducted at 9 a.m., Friday, in St. Louis Catholic Church at Cathedral City.

Interment is scheduled for Calvary Cemetery in Los Angeles.

Mrs. McIntyre, 54, lived at 795 C Street, Cathedral City, for the past four years. She was the wife of John McIntyre, a retired contractor, and the mother of two daughters, Donna and Margaret.

Margaret, a Palm Springs Police Department clerk, was critically injured in the Tuesday accident.

Born in Iowa, Mrs. McIntyre is also survived by a brother, Donald Fallon of Bell, and by two sisters, Mrs. Rose Lindblade and Mrs. A. F. Johnson, both of Iowa.

Arrangements for the other two victims of the traffic tragedy are still pending at Wiefels here. The two men, William and George Alexander are from Pioche, Nev.

$300,000 Bahama Hotel Opened

Contains Many New, Unusual Features

Village Realtors Arthur and Amy Nelson Lee today announced the opening of their new, $300,000 Bahama Hotel.

The newest and one of the most unusual of Palm Springs hostels, the beautiful, two-story hotel is located at 2323 North Palm Canyon Drive.

The Bahama, built by the Press Construction Co., is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Lee, who also operate the Amy Nelson real estate office.

THE LEES, who also have realty offices in San Clemente and Santa Ana, said they plan formal opening ceremonies in the near future.

Completely modern in design, the Bahama is a long, low structure, shaped in a broad "U," with harmonizing interior and exterior decor.

Boasting 30 rooms, the Bahama has 15 studio rooms with kitchens and an equal number of regular hotel rooms. However, interconnecting doors permit Village visitors to take two or more rooms as a single unit, Lee said, with or without kitchens.

IT HAS A LARGE, tastefully furnished fireplace lounge opening onto the patio area. The desert-landscaped patio, framed by the hotel wings, features a 20-by-45-foot swimming pool.

Room kitchens feature built-in appliances, including range, oven and dishwasher. Poolside continental kitchens are readily available. Continental breakfast is served to all hotel guests.

LEE SAID THE hotel is planned as a year-around operation. It has refrigerated air conditioning and television for all rooms.

All the rooms were decorated and furnished in contemporary modern motif by Barker Brothers, which also provided wall-to-wall carpeting and draperies.

Exterior decor was planned by Village designer High Kaptur and the building itself was designed by draftsman Raymond Devore, of San Clemente.

PATIO FURNITURE was supplied by Palm Springs Chaise and Chairs and stonework on the rock and stucco facade of the building was created by John Gallorani. Hoams Construction Co. installed the spacious pool and Paul Holmes was contractor for the hotel's fully automatic sprinkler system.

The Jerez district of Spain, which produces all of the world's true sherry wines, is about the size of New York City's Manhattan Island.

BAHAMA HOTEL OWNERS Arthur and Amy Nelson Lee today announced the opening of their glamorous new Palm Canyon Drive Hotel. Built at a cost of $300,000, the Bahama year-round resort accommodations, including refrigerated kitchen studios, swimming pool and continental breakfast for all hotel guests. (Desert Sun Photo)

Wow, has the news been piling up! So, I'll save the flowery introduction and get right into the headlines. First off, basketball. So far this season we've played four games, with a two win and two loss record. We've beaten San Jac and Perris and our losses were to Banning and Elsinore (the latter was quite a surprise, we expected to win).

THE SCHOLARSHIP Society went on an excursion to the Kaiser Steel Mill in Fontana. There they viewed the processes of steel making and what goes on within a steel mill. The students had an educational as well as enjoyable day.

There was an Awards Assembly for all the boys who lettered in football. The guest speaker was the head coach from UCR, Carl Salin.

ON FRIDAY ALL the students who had sold P-T-A memberships were admitted to a movie shown in the auditorium. The film was "Man With A Million," starring Gregory Peck. It was a great incentive for the students to sell P-T-A memberships and the drive was a great success.

That's the chatter for now, hope to see ya' at the game Friday.

Seeing's Believing

SIDNEY, Maine — (UPI) — A pair of eyeglasses lost more than 50 years ago was found unbroken recently in a field that had been plowed at least 5 times in the interim.

The glasses, still in their case, were turned up by Ray E. Phibbrick while he was digging potatoes. He remembered the day his grandfather lost them in the 1900's.

Processors of Food

MINNEAPOLIS — (UPI) — Farmers will be outnumbered within three or four years by the workers who process and distribute our food, according to a study by the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co.

It showed that there are about six million full-time farmers in the U. S., a decrease of two million in the past decade. There are about 5,250,000 full-time food workers, an increase of half a million in the same period.

New Water Plan Told

Outpost Estates residents were without water for some 24 hours this weekend, due to a breakdown in both the regular and standby pumps of the Palm Springs Outpost Water Co.

Maurice Silman, president of the company, told the Desert Sun today that the water shut-off was a "routine breakdown of the pumps" and that the company had made arrangements with the Rancho Ramon Water Co., to tie into its lines to supply water.

Silman said that his company had received permission from the California Public Utilities Commission for the tie in with Rancho Ramon.

Pending before the PUC is a request from the Palm Springs Water Co. to transfer the Outpost Water company's certificate to it for service.

Silman said that his company, which has been operating since 1936 and serves some 100 homes in the Outpost Estates, has made no decision concerning the Palm Springs Water company's application. "We can now serve the people in this area adequately," said Silman.

OUR BEST WISHES TO
MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR LEE FOR CONTINUED SUCCESS

THIS "MERRY OLDSMOBILE" may lack the comforts of today's highway cruisers, but its a first-rate delivery wagon for Del Germain, operator of Germain's Liquors in Cathedral City, and store clerk Joy Higby. Actually, the 1901 runabout is owned by the Early Times liquor people and it's in the store for display purposes. But it will clock an easy 35 miles an hour while it travels at the rate of 65 miles per gallon of gas, Germain said. The two-cylinder buggy is really a 1939 model—it's made by a Florida firm that specializes in 1901 Oldsmobiles, and except for such modern conveniences as sealed-beam headlights and the like, it boasts the same equipment as its original predecessors. ## Without Precedent...Even Among Cadillacs!

It has long been understood that the one true way to judge a Cadillac is to measure it against another Cadillac! And yet, even this historic yardstick is not completely applicable for 1959. For this newest "car of cars" is without precedent—even among Cadillacs!

Standing regally at the curbside, in motion on the highway, or making its grand entrance at some distinguished event—its majestic new styling is always the subject of unstinted admiration.

Cadillac's new fabrics and leathers are breath-taking to behold... appointments are crafted with a jeweler's care... and its interiors are so spacious that entering and leaving are accomplished with wonderful ease and grace.

And the car is easy to handle, so obedient and responsive to the touch and so smooth and silken in action that even the longest journey is a pleasure to anticipate—and a joy to recall.

Without precedent, did we say?

Well, we'll have to confess that there are some ways in which this new Cadillac is very much like its distinguished predecessors. There is the great quality of its craftsmanship, for instance... its remarkable dependability... and its extraordinary economy of ownership.

But with these happy exceptions, Cadillac for 1959 is clearly in a class all of its own!

So whether you are looking forward to your first Cadillac—or your fifth—or even your tenth—you have a great discovery ahead of you.

We suggest you visit your dealer soon for a personal demonstration of this brilliant new Cadillac.

Revision Of State Constitution First Step To Shorter Ballot

With memories of the long, confusing and complicated ballot of the recent general State election still fresh in the minds of some 5,000,000 California voters, this seems to be the ideal time to inaugurate effective steps to bring about short and simplified ballots in the future.

The very first essential is to revise and condense the State constitution since most of the matters submitted to the voters for decision and many of the one-candidate offices appearing on the ballot are included because of constitutional requirements.

Altogether too few citizens are aware of the fact that the constitution of the State of California is one of the longest, most cumbersome, conflicting, outmoded, undesirably cluttered and heterogeneously patched documents of its kind in the United States.

It contains a total of 75,000 words as compared to 12,500 for the constitution of the State of New Jersey, 15,417 for Ohio, 17,000 for Illinois and 20,000 for New York.

It has been amended more than 300 times in more than 400 places since adopted in 1879 and is replete with obsolete provisions, contradictions and both trivial and unnecessary provisions.

It contains scores of matters and minute specifications and details not properly placed in constitutional realms and makes governmental operation generally and departmental operations slow, difficult, costly and clouded by uncertainties, often dependent upon legal interpretations and ultimate court directives.

Almost everyone familiar with the sad state of California's constitution in recent years agrees that it should be revised and condensed into a concisely brief and basic document, eliminating all archaic, antiquated, unnecessary and undesirable features in such a manner that it would rarely if ever require future amendment or revisions.

Further, this need was recognized officially by the people of California as far back as 1934 when the electorate approved a measure at the polls for a State Constitutional Convention for that very purpose.

Despite the expressed will of voters to the State legislature to call such a convention, nothing has been done to implement this 25 year old mandate.

Now, however, comes a new and strong ray of hope.

The League of Women Voters of California, one of the largest and most active non-partisan political groups in the State, has taken an interest in shortening the ballot and of necessity, also, revising the constitution.

In the interest of better State government, the League has recently published an excellent booklet on the subject entitled Briefs on a Long Constitution, which is now being distributed to its members, the press and is available to the public.

It is a splendid example of the manner in which the women of California are taking an active, helpful, intelligent and effective interest and leadership in sound and constructive improvement of State government.

It is to be sincerely hoped that the widespread educational effort now under way succeeds in a long needed revision of the constitution and consequent elimination of the biennial ballot bouts of millions of voters with inconsequential measures and superfluous spaces for uncontested offices.

Extension of the feminine trait for neatness and orderliness in domestic affairs into the political household of State government would be of particular benefit in California.

All power and best wishes to the fine women of California in their creditable campaign to sweep away the cobwebs and present the people with a bright, new constitution as a shining example of their stewardship in the vital field of State politics.

The Issue of 'Bread Tax'

WASHINGTON, D. C. —There is an issue in search of a hero. The two could readily come together in the 86th Congress which is, aside from Alaska, the most urbanized one in history.

The member of this Congress who dares point to the Federal cost of farm supports, and to shout "Bread Tax," would find himself acclaimed in every State and in nearly every Congressional District.

The march of people and political influence away from the farm means that the new Congress is non-farm and may be anti-farm in sentiment. The price of food, rather than the production of food, could be made the touchstone of political leadership. All that awaits this state of affairs is for some forceful personality to reach out and close his fist around the issue of food costs vs. tax-supported food subsidies.

NO FIGURES ARE yet compiled to give the full picture. But a little assembly of the loose pieces will indicate what's there. Although there has been no national census since 1950, estimates at the Agriculture Department show that in 1950-51 the farm population dropped by 17 per cent and the non-farm population increased by 21 per cent. Thus, the voters likely to favor farm supports were 16 per cent in Mr. Truman's second term and only 12 per cent in Mr. Eisenhower's second term. As to property, which always spells some political influence, we are in a period (1955-60) when two million farm acres in 147 metropolitan areas are passing to residential or industrial uses.

THIS IS THE still-developing picture. It shows why the American Congress is on its way to becoming price-conscious instead of production-conscious about food. When Charlie Brannan was Agriculture Secretary, he used to keep a cartoon in his office captioned, "The Extra Plate," or some such title, showing unborn generations passing a dish for our static food supply. But that cat won't jump any more.

The farm lobby can't scare a knowledgeable Congress by parading the spectre of starvation. "The gain in agriculture productivity is far ahead of the growth rates in population," says an Agriculture Department researcher. "Now and in the foreseeable future, there is no danger point in sight."

SO, WHY NOT abolish the "bread tax" which city people pay to keep farm people in business? Why not bring down prices of food by curtailing our shipment of foodstuffs abroad? At this writing, every farm worker feeds 23.5 persons by his labor. But 19.75 of these persons are Americans, while the remaining 3.75 are foreigners.

One-sixth of our tax-supported agricultural production is being exported. If this food were kept at home and released to the domestic consumers, food prices would drop. As politicians see these things, close to eight Americans out of every nine, being non-farmers, would presumably react favorably to a program of price-lowering.

SINCE THE HOUSE of Representatives is apportioned to next year.

"All they would have to do," he said, "is take down President Wilson's picture and put up one of President Lincoln."

STAN DELAPLANE'S

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Our language isn't moribund. It grows by leaps and bounds. Every day a newer word is making welcome rounds.

That's one thing I like about it. It's so much alive. Somebody gets a bright new way to describe something, one word that takes care of a lot of others, and before you know it, it's in common usage.

NOW, FOR INSTANCE, take that combination breakfast and lunch.

It probably started on a Sunday morning when people like to sleep in.

When they woke up it was time for lunch. But they had to have breakfast, so they combined the two.

And the word "brunch" became a part of our language and is now in common usage.

So I think that another word, coined on the spur of the moment by a Village gentleman, will someday become a part of our vocabulary.

THIS GENTLEMAN, too modest to permit his name being used, was discussing a custom which prevails here as it does in other cities.

Palm Springs is full of committees. They meet for this and that, in an effort to curtail too much encroachment on the day's economic endeavors, plan their meetings coincident with meals.

THERE ARE BREAKFAST meetings at which topics are threshed out over ham and eggs, luncheon meetings and dinner meetings.

Why, I can remember in the days when I was supposed to be active, of going to a breakfast meeting of a Clean-Up committee, a luncheon meeting to discuss a bond drive and a dinner meeting to discuss the need of a hospital here, all in one day.

ANYWAY, this modest gentleman was discussing a committee meeting he had to attend that noon.

A luncheon session which would start with Martinis on the Rocks or other similar concoctions.

There would be two or three or maybe even four for the more daring members.

So, when someone asked him where he was going that noon, he answered, simply, coining a potent new word: "DRUNCH."

MANY THINGS have been said about my chirography-hand writing, that is.

But I've lost my claim of being the worst writer in the office. Mr. Brott, business manager, who handles the personnel in our office is pretty smart. The girls he hires are pretty and smart, that is.

THE OTHER DAY the girls were catting about hand-writing of various members of the staff and one made some side remarks about my open 'o', undotted 'i' and uncrossed 't' style. Said the pert trick at the switch board:

"Mr. G? His handwriting is copper-plate compared to D's. That looks like a man with St. Vitus dance doing the Mambo!"

Postcard

Up and out for the morning papers, letting out little short, hilarious barks of laughter: "Ha, ha, ha! Ho, ho, ho!"

I do this to relieve tension. (Tension has been on relief for a number of years, now, and shows no signs of leaving me. Tension LIKES me, that is why.)

Just a few years ago, Mr. Eisenhower advised everybody to laugh.

HE SAID HE HAD doctor's orders to stop cussing and start laughing.

"Every time I miss a golf shot, you will hear me go ha, ha, ha," said the President.

This morning I see a picture of the President in the newspapers. He has not missed a golf shot but some worry wart from the journals has just asked a question: "What about the Russians, Mr. President?"

THE President is not going ha, ha, ha. He looks gloomy. Probably tense, too.

HA, HA, HA! I am loose as the handle of the stove. The one my son took apart and we have looked high and low for the screws. To open it, you have to stick a thin screwdriver through the place where the screws were.

That holds the handle so that it will turn and you can open the stove.

If you cannot find the screwdriver, there is a lot of running around. While biscuits burn and smoke pours through the cracks.

The only thing to do is laugh it off. I have a hollow laugh. Like hollering down a rain barrel. But I am plenty relaxed.

Mr. Conrad Hilton dances to relax!

I SAW HIM AT the opening of the Beverly Hilton in Hollywood. He was doing a cha-cha-cha number. A cha-cha-cha number simply winds me up like an 8-day clock. But for Mr. Hilton, it is like rock-a-bye baby.

Whenever you heist a bath towel from the Waldorf, Or cannot get rooms at the Houston Hotel, Or somebody does a Brodie out the window of the Istanbul hostelry, Mr. Hilton does not get tense.

He gets out on the polished floor and glides back and forth.

TOKYO JIFF — Socialist Party leaders decided to end their two-day convention here after only one day. Too many party members were off in the provinces campaigning for local elections.

IT WON'T BE Bing Crosby for the F. Scott Fitzgerald part in "Beloved Infidel." Buddy Adler claims—"but somebody gaudy, like Scotty himself—somebody like Henry Fonda or Monty Clift."

Jack Benny tells how a producer pal of his got rid of a pesky girl friend: Bought her a mess of new luggage and sent her off to Cuba on a vacation all her baggage stashed, stem-to-stern, "Viva Batista!"

EARL WILSON:

Be Nice to Chicago Week

CHICAGO — Wilson's sick, sick, sick... the guy has flipped."

That's what B-way was muttering after I launched "Be Kind to People Week"—a mad experiment during which I'd try to write only praise about celebrities. Running short of usable material in N.Y. after only two days, I fled here to undertake the project about (1) Marie McDonald (2) disc jockeys and (3) Chicago.

Marie was leaving town after doing a show at the Chez Paree including a sketch titled "My Mama Done Tole Me"—which some people interpreted as being about the Gahors (Marie couldn't understand why).

"My mafia done tole me If I wanted minktails. They don't have to be healthy As long as they're wealthy..."

There was also a line about Foo-yeeo on Trujillo if he didn't give ladies Mercedes.

Marie told me she will continue doing the sketch around the country. Zsa Zsa had seen it and had said, "I am too much of a lady to make a scene in a night club!" Marie had retorted, "Where do you make your scenes?" And that's all I'm going to say because this is Sweetness and Light Week and don't urge me!

Chicago was hoppin'. The furniture convention jammed the town. Lucius Beebe sat in the lobby of the Ambassador East, groaning that he hadn't reserved a room. They were giving him a bed in the owner's office.

"I've been in Hollywood writing a piece on Gene Fowler," he said. "How is Gene?" I asked. "You mean," roared Beebe, "HOW AM I?"

And those bustling night clubs! Mister Kelly's, where Comedian Jimmie Komack announced that he feels he looks like the kid on the cover of Mad Magazine. "It's because I've had a strange adulthood," he added. "At a cellar Bohemian spot, The Gate of Horn, comedian Paul Mazursky greeted us, "Good evening, friends of Castro," and then mentioned a churn, who, he said, has the type of personality, that he makes enemies at Friendship clubs.

But I was going to say something nice about the disc jockeys. I doubt if most Americans realize their importance and I love the way they kid their jobs. One of them defined his job as "practicing the art of blabbermouth-manship." He was the same one who did a headache medicine commercial and then said, "But maybe you don't have a headache. Folks, then just listen to this commercial, and you will get one." You have to admit those guys add something to the gaiety of life.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. Young, attractive Dolores Hart "blew up" (forgot her lines) in "The Pleasure of His Company" the other night—and afterward Charles Ruggles and Cyril Ritchard told her, "Nobody noticed." She hadn't been getting her sleep due to photo chores... Bert Lancaster stopped in Toots Shor's en route to Mexico to star in "The Unforgiven"... Jack E. Leonard had a problem. He's never flown and it is: Should he fly first with Arthur Godfrey who invited him to Florida? Godfrey suggested himself that he begin under better circumstances.

Bill Miller's huge Riviera, after trying vainly to get a liquor license, closed; he said he'll try again "when the license comes through"... Sydney Chaplin met Noelle Adam, arriving from Paris, zipped her to the Little Club... Singer-disk jock Johnny Johnston threatens a lawsuit if the Johnny Johnston restaurants (run by others) don't change their name. He says: "It makes people think I'm out of show business."

Leo Durocher's offered to coach baseball in Israel... Jan Murray's backing his first B-way show, "Rashomon." The "You Asked For It" TV show filmed a celebrity in Lindy's—waiter Sam Jagger. (Sam says he got paid for it: "Only the birds sing for nothing"... Charlton Heston is due back after filming "Ben Hur" in Rome for nine months.)

Pati Page and Charlie O'Currah bought a hunk of Ray Ryan's Calif. property for their "dream house"... Sammy Davis Jr. may star in boxer-evangelist Henry Armstrong's film bio.

EARL'S PEARS... Contrary to opinion, many a woman is able to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH... Tony Pettito already knows one thing he's sure to get next Christmas... a list of things the rest of the family wants.

HER OFF to Cuba on a vacation all her baggage stashed, stem-to-stern, "Viva Batista!"

CHANNEL CHATTER... Hully chee, Van Cliburn is asking $30,000 per TV spree! Despite which the Telephone Hour toppers are after him. Incidentally, the new seasonal AT&T shows, teeing off with "American Festival" Feb. 10, will be followed in March by "Mardi Gras" and in April by "Spring Song"—all with original musical formats and all so pleasing (on paper!) to the phone cicerones that they're planning 'em at the rate of two-a-month instead of one next season.

Bouncing Ball Departments... Pete Lawford played a bit part in a Dead End Kids' movie, "Junior Army." 11 years ago, with Billy Halop as one of the starring Dead Enders, Halop, just signed to play a bit part in one of Pete's Thin Man segments "The Perfect Servant."

PRODUCERS OF YOU Asked for a vamped Vivian Blaine, Gypsy Rose Lee, Bob Preston and Joseph Schickelruth into their March 19, "Backstage Broadway." And with Gypsy ready to go with her new musical, "Gypsy," Preston starring on the Main Stem in "Music Man," etc., I don't suppose I have to paint a picture showing what you asked for?

Alan Ladd's large TV agenda has pushed the start of his next movie, "The Cavalryman," way out of sight—at least until 1960. Debbie Reynolds wrapped up Guy Williams and Britt Lomond to demonstrate a between-bouts Zorro-type fencing act (from their own series) at the Thailians' Actors-vs.-Pugilists fights in Hollywood Legion Stadium on next Paddy's Day.

PHIL HARRIS hammerlocked Betty Hutton for his Feb. 7 Times spec, along with Dean Martin, and of course, the Big News of the Evening (and of the Season, too)—the comeback of Phil's wife, Alice Faye, after too many years away.

Chevy Chedoke Janet Blair for a reunion with her summer replacement playmates, John Raitt and Edie Adams, on it's March 29 non-Dinah Shore. That's providing Janet has her baby by then.

SID CAESAR signed up with Henry Jaffee to co-produce some distaff-angled daytimers about famous femmes and how they changed the course of history. Ser... will be titled Women Are Here to Stay.

Bob Cummings' definition of a good actor: "The villain in the horror movie who can say 'You've got to kill me for your own good!'—without laughing!"

Play Starts Today in Thunderbird Invitational

164 Tee Off in 2-Day Pro-Member Event

They quit practicing last night and started playing for keeps this morning at Thunderbird Country Club in the Eighth Annual Thunderbird Invitational tournament with the leading money winners of the pro ranks going after $15,000 in prize money in the main event and Pro-Member play.

Top prize to the winning pro in the 72-hole four-day tournament is $1,500 while the pro with the winning team in the 36-hole two-day Pro-Member tourney, picks up $1,000.

With 41 pros each teamed with three members, 164 teed off today.

THUNDERBIRD IS the fourth stop in the winter golf tour of the pros with the Los Angeles Open, the Tijuana Open and Bing Crosby's Pebble Beach event, the first three.

Winners of these events plus a hot newcomer to the pro ranks were tabbed on the eve of the invitational as the players to watch although the competition runs brisk throughout the entire field of 41 pros entered.

THE FOUR ARE:

1—Art Wall, the leading money-winner of 1959 with $9,970 collected on the golf course in three tournaments so far: $6,000 by winning both the pro and the pro-amateur tourney in Bing Crosby's clam-bake at Pebble Beach; $4,400 for finishing second in the Los Angeles Open and $570 for 12th in the Tijuana Open.

2—Ken Venturi, the San Francisco race-horse, who came from far off the pace to capture the Los Angeles Open and $5,400.

3—ERNE VOSSLER, the mild-mannered Texan, who won the Tijuana event.

4—And last, but not least, 23-year-old Joan McMillin, who has not won anything—except money. McMillin is the young sensation of the tour. In three tournaments this year he has collected $4,462—which isn't bad money.

BUT ANYONE in the fine, selected field could win it.

In practice rounds Tuesday and yesterday par took a beating. Wall carded as 30-34-64 and Frank Stranahan, guest of Robert P. McCulloch, Eldorado Country Club president, for the Thunderbird and the Eldorado tournament to follow on Monday and Tuesday, had a 32-35-67 Tuesday.

Yesterday Arnold Palmer equalled Wall's 64 with rounds of 31 and 33.

INCLUDED in the field are National Open champion Tommy Bolt, who has been playing well; Masters champion Arnold Palmer, always a big threat; PGA champion Dow Finsterwald, who is slightly off his stick; and Gene Littler, the three-time tournament champion, who almost won the Bing Crosby tourney.

The Thunderbird course is long, flat and pretty-much wide open, and that always leaves a lot of room for the big hitters to stretch out. Tops among these are George Bayer, the 240-pound ex-football player; Mike Soucek, another ex-grid star; and Paul Harney, the slender man from Auburn, Mass., who can hit the ball with any of them.

THE TOURNAMENT starts out as Pro-Amateur competition today and tomorrow, with many movie stars, members of the Thunderbird Club, participating.

Among these are Phil Harris, Bing Crosby, if he can get away from commitments, Dean Martin, Randolph Scott and Desi Arnaz. Ex-home run king Ralph Kiner also will be competing.

Bob Hope was forced to withdraw from the event yesterday due to a blood clot in an eye.

112 Pros Tee Off At Lakeside in $5,000 Pro-Am

LOS ANGELES — UPI — The three-day $5,000 Lakeside Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament got underway today with a field including most of the touring professionals not invited to compete in the Thunderbird tourney at Palm Springs.

A total of 112 pros and a similar number of amateurs filed entries, prompting the club to split the field for the first round of the 36-hole tournament.

Included in the field were former National Open champions Jack Fleck and Dick Mayer; and former PGA champs Jim Ferrier, Jim Turnesa and Vic Ghezzi. Also on hand were John Barnum, Al Bessellink, J. C. Goosie, Paul O'Leary, Jerry Barber and Howie Johnson.

AWARD YACHT TROPH

NEW YORK (UPI) — The North American Yacht Racing Union has awarded Henry S. Morgan of Huntington, N. Y., the Nathaniel Herreshoff Trophy for his outstanding contributions to North American sailing in 1958.

Ray Robinson Wants Moore In Title Bout

NEW YORK — UPI — Sugar Ray Robinson announced unexpectedly today, "I want to fight Archie Moore instead of Carmen Basilio."

The 36-year-old middleweight champion tossed that bomb into cauliflower canyon just a few hours before his scheduled conference with Truman Gibson of the IBC about a return defense against Basilio.

"I want to fight Moore because he's the hottest attraction in boxing right now," Robinson explained. "And I won't be happy till I win the light heavyweight crown—my third."

Sugar Ray was welterweight champion before he won the middleweight title. He tried to take the lightweight crown from Joey Maxim on June 25, 1952; but was overcome by the 104 degree heat in Yankee Stadium and lost on a 14th-round technical knockout.

When Gibson was told of Robinson's statement, he declared, "Say that's the first I heard of it. It's really something to think about, isn't it?"

Jack Kearns, manager of 42- or 45-year-old Moore, almost died of a heart attack. He spouted, "That's great. That's the hottest match in the world today—the two old masters—Moore and Robinson, in a title fight. That's got everything—a million dollar match."

102 Youngsters Now Active in Tennis Clinics

Dave Gillam, Racquet Club tennis pro, in charge of the weekly net clinics conducted each Saturday morning on the courts of Palm Springs High School, said today that so far 102 area youngsters between the ages of 9 and 14 have participated in the lessons.

The clinics are held each Saturday morning from 9 to 11 o'clock. Last Saturday, Seamus Numan, a High School net coach, and Eff Limardo of the City Recreation Department, assisted Gillam in the instructions.

Gillam listed point winners to date as follows:

106—Gandra Clark, Penny Pritschett, 90-100—Karen Knutson.
80-85—Patty Gilliam, Bonnie Luck, 70-75—Tom Marino, Sally Stone, Nicki Watt, Judy Allen, Steven Kell, 60-65—Jimmy Hopp, Fred Mix, Pamela Mathews, Susan Morrison, Brian Edwards.
50-55—Melinda Rogers, Barbara Jo Graves, Joan Elliott, Linda Rechin, Nancy Woods, Pam Shestanko, Noel Hendrickson, Lloyd Chazson, Robert Turpin, Nan Stephens, Dale Fritz, 40-45—Terry Nunan, Dan Garrett, Nancy Coffey, Julie Harty, Jill Garsner, Susan Elliott, Chady Elliott, Jennie Chaffont, Marge Morrison, Tim Courtis.
30-35—Beth Stevens, Rhella Coffey, Jeannie Parsons, Doug Lilly, Joan Peterson, Jerry Gilbreath, Sally Elliott, Susan Hopp, Tommy Luck, Andrea Edwards, George Jump, Rick Lubott, John Purcell, Pat Clark.
Under 30—Dexter Smith, Billy Reynolds, Stephanie Smith, Sally Di Paola, Chris Peterson, George Valeur, Steven Bergeson.

Two Officials at USC Penalized For Recruiting

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — At least two University of Southern California officials were under probation today for recruiting activities which led to the recent action by the National Collegiate Athletic Association against SC.

Names of the officials involved in the disciplinary action were withheld, but Assistant Football Coach Al Davis and Nick Pappas, the school's alumni field secretary, have been under fire since the NCAA imposed penalties on the school Jan. 7.

Dr. Norman Topping, SC president, disclosed the school's action Wednesday to the Faculty Senate. He did not say how many men were involved or mention their names.

The probation means those implicated cannot participate in SC sports or alumni activities for the length of the probation. Topping said the probation would last "until further notice."

Record Entry List Seen for Seniors

May Split Field for First Day

Third big local golf tournament of the month is scheduled to get underway next Tuesday — the January tourney of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association — and, as usual, will be played on three area courses.

The event, a 254-hole best ball twosome, will cover 18 holes at O'Donnell Golf Club Tuesday, 18 at Tamarisk Wednesday and the final 18 at Thunderbird Thursday.

OFFICIALS of the association are bracing themselves for a record entry list with the possibility that the field will have to be split for two days at O'Donnell, half playing on Monday and the rest on Tuesday.

Entries are coming in rapidly and so far have come from 35 states.

The annual January and November tournaments of the Palm Springs Senior association has taken on nation-wide prestige.

MAIN EVENT will be a best ball twosome tournament with a daily best ball foursome tourney included.

Many other special daily events are listed in the program. Prizes will be awarded Thursday evening at Thunderbird after the conclusion of the tournament.

Mantle Wants Raise, Not Pay Cut, Spurns Contract

Mickey Mantle, the Yankees' famed long-range bomber, fired a hot potato from Dallas, Tex., to New York today—and dropped it right in the middle of General Manager George Weiss' lap.

"Just say I'm dissatisfied, period," growled the 27-year-old home run king after announcing that he has returned his unsigned contract to the Yankees. "You can add that I'll never take a pay cut. I'm planning on a raise."

The size of the pay cut offered Mantle, who earned an estimated $75,000 last season, ranged from a "token cut" of $3,000 to a huge bite of $15,000. Weiss did not say whether Mantle would be offered a cut in his press conference Tuesday but he did say a few of the world champions would be unpleasantly surprised when they saw their contracts.

MANTLE'S AVERAGE in 1958 fell off to .304 compared to his .365 of 1957 but he led the league with 42 homers, knocked in 97 runs and can argue he is the American League's No. 1 drawing card both at home and on the road.

It is still too early to tell whether Mantle and Weiss are about to carry on one of those old-time disputes in the tradition of Babe Ruth and Ed Barrow, but it is possible that they are as much as $27,000 apart at present. Until recently it was believed Mantle was hoping for a $15,000 raise to $90,000.

The Yankees are used to trouble in signing their high priced perennial champions but they haven't had a real "page-one" since 1937 when Joe DiMaggio held out until the closing weeks of spring training.

FROM A TACTICAL point of view, offering Mantle a slice is a double-edged sword. The Yankees obviously would gain the upper hand with every other player on the club if they can get Mickey to agree to a cut. On the other hand, it is unlikely that many other Yankee stars will come to terms until they have a fair idea how Mantle fared.

GOSPEL CARAVAN which has spent four months traveling across the United States—a 2,800 mile tour from Hinton, W. Va., to Los Angeles—will pull into Palm Springs tomorrow for one night's services in the Assembly of God Church, at 1209 East Ramon Road. Ten persons in caravan have dressed in pioneer garb and ride the replicas of famous Conestoga wagons in their evangelistic trip.

Gospel Caravan To Stop Here Friday Night

A latter-day pioneer from West Virginia arrives here Friday at the head of a three-wagon caravan which has moved 2,800 miles across the nation in four months.

He is evangelist Rev. Harry R. Peyton and his object is simple. "I want people to come back to the faith of their fathers," he says. "I want them to come out and worship like their parents did."

REV. PEYTON'S clarion call has been answered by masses in more than a hundred American cities where he has halted the 10-member wagon train. He has drawn the three replicas of the famous Conestoga wagon up before some church in those cities and has pastured his three sets of matched dray horses and then launched an evangel that has packed churches and meeting halls wherever he has stopped.

His stop in Palm Springs — at 7:30 p.m., Friday, in the Assembly of God Church at 1209 East Ramon Road — is just one of four stops in the desert area.

TONIGHT HE stops at Trinity Baptist Church in Indio, on Saturday the caravan will move to Banning and on Sunday the group will find itself in Beaumont.

The minister has churches in Hinton, W. Va., in Roanoke, Va., and in nine other communities in that area. The party left Hinton back on Sept. 6, bound for Los Angeles, and the end of their trek — Los Angeles — is now in sight.

O.E.S. Gives Party for Officers

Line Officers of Palm Springs Chapter No. 576, Order of The Eastern Star, were honored at the organization's meeting on Thursday, January 15, at the Masonic Temple. At this important occasion, Associate Matron Anita Dubin and Associate Patron Willard McKinney advanced one station and they presided over the proceedings with Worthy Matron Mary Clark and Worthy Patron Thor Fredericksen. The other Line Officers of Palm Springs Chapter, Conductress Ethel Embree and Associate Conductress Ruth Boston, shared the honors of the evening.

Distinguished members of the Order present were John Vale, a member of the Public Relations Committee of General Grand Chapter of the World and a Past Grand Patron of California; Forrest Wheeler, a Past Grand Patron of Wyoming; Opal Francis of Yucaipa, Deputy Grand Matron of the 62nd District; Esther Jarret, a Past Matron of San Geronimo Chapter, Banning, who was a Deputy Grand Matron in 1958. Hundreds of officers and members of Chapters throughout Southern California were present to honor their Palm Springs associates.

Anita Dubin's theme for the evening, "Our Beautiful Desert," was interestingly carried out in the decorations, pin-ons, presentations and speeches. Her 1960 colors of turquoise blue and silver predominated and the beautifully decorated tea table, as well as the Chapter Room, artistically executed the desert motif in these colors. By the close of the evening the desert had won many new enthusiasts.

General chairman of the affair was Betsy McKinney; Isabel Magennis was refreshment chairman; Lola Sherrill, decoration chairman; and Larry Embree, Al Boston and Lou Dubin served as ushers. # Hundreds at Hospital Benefit Dinner

Three Stars Taken Ill; Miss Show

With tables set up in the pavilion, the diningroom, the lounge and the bar room, Thunderbird Country Club served 583 dinners at the gigantic Pro-Am Kick Off that was a benefit for the Women's Auxiliary of Desert Hospital. The huge crowd danced to the music of two orchestras, Jack Ross's and Desi Arnaz's, and late stayers heard Phil Harris and Desi put on a long-to-be-remembered jam session.

Mrs. Harold Murphy, president of the Auxiliary, said that the affair had raised thousands of dollars for the new Nurses' Residence, which is this year's project for the Auxiliary. Through the worst possible combination of events, four of the top stars scheduled to appear, were unable to do so, and those in charge of the entertainment found themselves without the show they had arranged. Bob Hope, canceled out of the Pro-Am tournament and was unable to appear on the show, because of a blood clot in one eye. Sinatra, who had planned to fly here from Las Vegas after his Sands show, had to cancel out of his show there and Dean Martin, also scheduled to appear here, flew to Las Vegas to substitute for Sinatra. Bing Crosby has a virus, which flared up, and he was given a shot and ordered to bed with a temperature of 103.

Among the hundreds of persons at the big benefit were: Mr. and Mrs. Kent Hayes, the Barney Hinkles, Lou Manseaus, Eric Staintons, Mrs. Jack Kenaston (Jack's up north), Mrs. Clarke Swanson. With the Harold Murphys were the Herbert Carpenters, Earl Hendersons, Fred Klemps, Ed Robbins, Teresa Fields, Ed Hunts, John Vails.

Others in the big crowd were: the Thomas Davises, Elsinore Machris, John Haskell, Phil Regans and their houseguest Mrs. David McDonald, the Noel Clarkes, Abe Lipseys, Ernie Youngs, Severt Thurstones, Bill Gorman, and Winsome Courtney, who hosted the table.

At the Harry Joe Browns' table were: the Ed Silvermans, Maurice Horners, Lester Seligs, Asher Levys, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strauss, Jerry Robinsons, Jack Meiselmans.

Others were: the Joe Froggatts, Zach Brinkerhoffs, D. Murphys of Denver, Chauncey Needhams, Georgina Poston, S. P. Manasses, Dolph Oberfelds, Peggy Lester, Herb Listman, R. R. Halls, Mrs. W. B. Malouf, the Ken Kirks, George Gannons, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Waters, John McClures, Irving Snyder, George Irwins, George Robersons, Joe Dyers, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Morrey, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grow, Dr. and Mrs. William Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Williams, Dr. and Mrs. James Oliver, Mrs. Harrison Barnes, Mrs. Emily DeWare.

Also: the Charles Farrells, Mrs. Noble Banks, Ralph Wilcox Taylor, the Ralph Kinners, Clarke Bramwells, Gus Kettmanns, Bill Powells, Mrs. Austin McManus, Mrs. Genevieve Berg, the Frank Bogerts, Joe Grabiners, George Barretts, Hoagy Carmichael, Barney Gengenbach, Jack Blighs, Harrison Fishers, Mrs. Charlotte Welles, Joel Stones, Lee Douds.

Farewell Party for Mrs. Blondon

As a farewell gesture to Mrs. Frances Blondon, who with her husband leaves soon for another parish, the executive board of Katherine Finchy P-TA surprised her with a handkerchief shower Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Lee Muhleck, 2284 Desert Palm Drive.

The surprised honoree received many beautiful handkerchiefs, as the board expressed their appreciation for her capable leadership of the new P-TA.

Doughnuts and rolls were served with coffee or tea by the hostess.

Others attending were Meses. Jerry Bunker, J. R. Wahlberg, Clarence Brechlin, Cy Oistad, Clarence Judd, Oran Deal, Don Goundry and Jon McMichael.

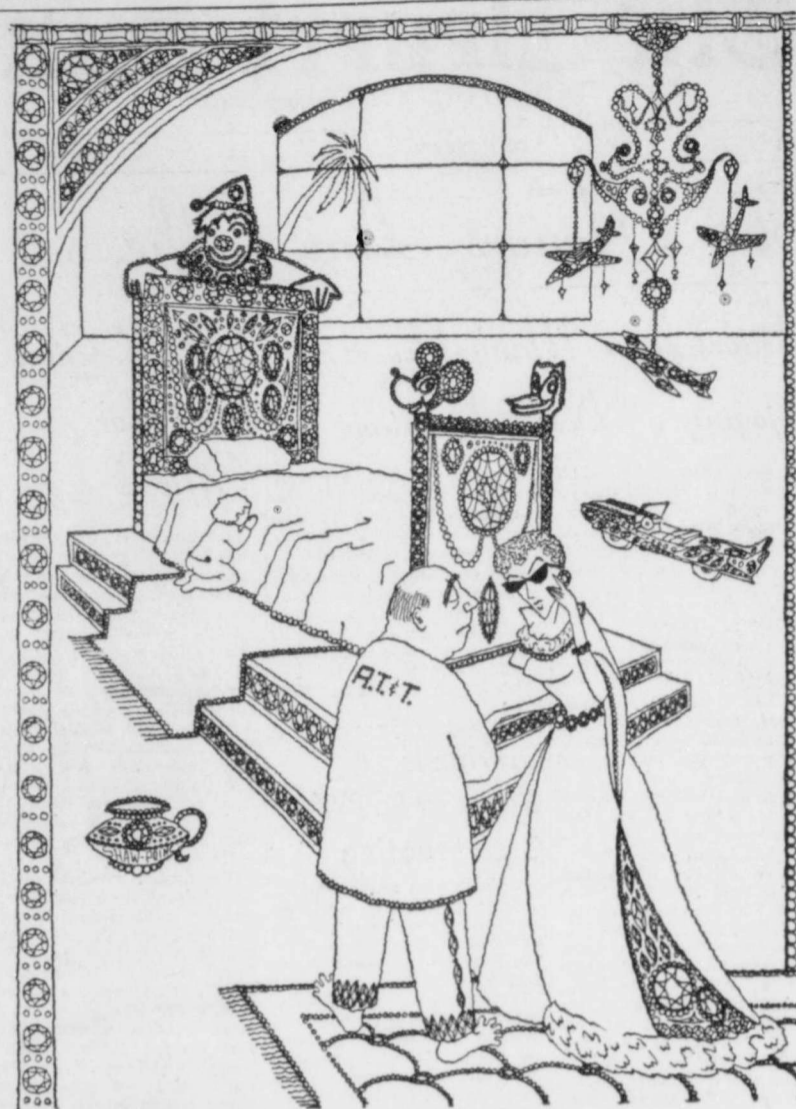

Maynard Laswells, Henry Dolards, Randolph Christies, Mrs. B. C. Bollman, Eddie King, Harold Hicks, Mary Palmer, George Holsteins, Pollard Simons, H. H. Moncriefs, Dolph Bremers, Ralph Singers, Ross Clarkes, Paul and Trudy Reynolds, Earl Buckinghams, Bo Winnings, George Dulans.

And: the H. M. Ridders, Victor Hugo-Vidals, Robert McCullochs, Leo Owens, Arnold Rumwells, Mrs. Ed Rothbart, Francis Gunders, General and Mrs. Victor Bertrandias, Gus Layton, Mrs. Fred Albertson, Millie Considine and son, Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hopps, the Dick Snidemanns, John Pritzlaffs of Milwaukee, Guy Stillmans of Phoenix, Lawrence Hollands of Reno with Ernie Primms, Terry Rays, and dozens more.

The show which was arranged by Milt Hicks and Phil Harris, went on to a late hour was cheerfully applauded.

Add Safety to Your Kitchen

NEW YORK (UP) — If accidents happen in your kitchen, you may want to heed these tips on kitchen safety suggested by Employees Mutual Accident prevention specialists.

Keep handles of pots and pans turned away from the edge of the range and out of reach of children. Use flat-bottomed utensils that do not tip easily.

Control the temperature of hot fat. Put out a grease fire by covering pan or sprinkling it with baking soda or salt.

Study directions for using steam equipment such as pressure cookers before trying them. Keep openings clean in ressure release valves. Follow usage instructions exactly.

Protect fingers when using slicers, choppers, grinders. Never force food down a grinder.

If candles are used on a table, light them just before the meal is ready and put them out right after. Don't use candles near curtains.

When cleaning porcelain sinks, avoid strong, gritty powders that may mar the finish. Scouring powders that have a sudsing action are kinder to the sink as well as to hands.

Have Program About Russia

Wendell L. Miller, D. D., world traveler and photographer, presented an outstanding program on Russia when he appeared on the Palm Springs Woman's Club program Monday.

Slides showing the Kremlin with all the beautiful architecture of the massive buildings were in sad contrast to the unhappy faces of the people of Russia. Pictures of the many churches showed the people packed into the buildings and standing outside the entrances to hear the message of the church. Following the program Mrs. Herbert Burns, Club president, welcomed two new members Mrs. Marvin Cartwright and Mrs. Ben Read.

Mrs. M. E. Hargess was tea chairman of the day, assisted by Meses. Joe Forkner, Marvin Cartwright, Allan P. James, W. W. Whittall, George B. Smith, Miss Hazel Gross and Mrs. Claude W. Gottbehet poured during the tea hour.

Urges Judicious Use of Poisons In Gardening

"Do not put poisons out in your yard or garden because petunias and other garden flowers in Palm Springs seem to be eaten by birds or other wild life" is the word from Mrs. Estelle Yerkes, president of the Committee for the Protection of Wild Life of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Palm Springs home gardeners are inadvertently killing wild life as well as domestic animals by the injudicious use of poisons, she added.

Mrs. Yerkes, who has had many years of experience as a Palm Springs gardener also points out that the destruction of plants is caused by cut worms which do the damage at night and can be found in the ground around the plant close to the surface in the daytime.

She suggests that all nurseries in the area have remedies in the form of both dusting powder and pellets which may be safely used and which will not harm animals or the birds the natural enemies of worms. "If the worms were on the surface in daylight, the birds would soon put an end to them," she says.

Dress up French dressing for fruit salad by adding a dash of cognac to your usual dressing mixture.

The attendees, all guests at King's View, ate mulligan stew, salad, bread and guzzled coffee—and all of 'em wore their Sunday worst for the event. ## Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: You've got to help us before we lose our minds. Our son told us that he's getting married next Sunday in the Parson's study to a girl we've never met. She lives out of town where he was stationed with the Army. We asked him what the rush was and just as we suspected she is having a baby, but, Abby, the baby is not HIS. He said she was in that condition when he met her but he loves her and wants to marry her anyway. His father is still in bed with a fever. She's coming in town with her older sister (she has no parents) and we want to know how to treat her? Our boy is 23, college educated, self supporting and clean-cut. He says she is refined, honest and the "nicest" girl he has ever known. Does this make sense?

ABOUT CRAZY DEAR ABBY: Many "nice" girls get into trouble. Your son must love her very much to marry her under the circumstances. Treat her like a human being, which is what she is. Even this story could have a happy ending. Good luck!

DEAR ABBY: I am a secretary to a wonderful man who is very successful in business but he never got through the fifth grade. When he dictates a letter to me he says, "I seen" and "you was" and naturally I am not going to send a business letter out with these glaring errors, so I correct them. When he asks me to read it back to him, he notices I have corrected his grammar, he gets very resentful. Should I send his letters out just as he dictates them or should I continue to correct his errors? A-I SECRETARY DEAR A-I: Quietly (and tactfully) make the necessary corrections.

DEAR ABBY: When engaged

couples are invited out and are in the presence of strangers, is it wrong for them to kiss and hug with amorous embraces. I am 29 and my sweetheart is 22. We went to a house-warming party and were sitting on the porch. We were told later by our parents that our behavior was disgraceful. I told them we act that way because we are in love. Were we wrong? I don't think so.

WILLIAM DEAR WILLIAM: Even when kisses are sweeter than wine, it is poor judgment to taste them in the presence of others.

DEAR ABBY: I would like you to settle an argument that's been going on between me and my husband for as long as I can remember. My home state is Tennessee and my mother is buried there. We don't live in that state anymore but when I die I want to be buried next to my mother in Tennessee. My husband wants me to be buried near him right here. I say if he wants to be buried near me he should give in and get buried in Tennessee near me and my mother. He says it is my duty to get buried next to him. Who is right?

MRS. B.G. DEAR MRS. B. G.: The cord between you and your mother was severed years ago. Your husband is your "family" now. If he wants you near him in the next life, feel flattered and agree to his wishes.

DEAR ABBY: I am almost 13. Me and about seven other girls went to the show the other night and all sat together except me and another girl. We sat in the back row because we knew our boyfriends were coming and we saved them seats. When the boys came they sat with us. We held hands a little but that's all. One of the other girls told her mother that me and this girl and our boyfriends were carrying on something disgraceful and my mother heard about it. Now she won't let me go to the show. Even with girls. Is this fair, Abby?

KAREN DEAR KAREN: When you go to the show with girls you should all sit together. A girl shouldn't go to meet a boy unless she asks her mother's permission first.
